On Monday 25th July "Fatima House opened its doors to two guests who were de-lighted with the welcome and facilities. A note from Mauricio Silva who welcomed them -It is with joy that I would like to announce that today Monday 25th July at mid-day we welcomed our first two guests in Fatima House. It has been a long journey which started in September last year when we heard Pope Fran-cis' call to welcome refugees in the midst of the so called refugee cri-sis. Many groups, organisations and individuals got together to offer a meaning-ful response to the Pope's call. Ten months on, as we open the doors of Fati-ma House, we remain committed to supporting those who seek sanctuary in Bir-mingham, in particular destitute women. The hope is house will provide these wom-en the much needed space to regularise their immigration status in the UK.". We keep the project in our prayers.

WELCOME! A warm welcome to Fr. Wladyslaw Zuziak from Krakow in Poland who will be living at English Martyrs' Presbytery and looking after both English Martyrs' and St. Anne's during August. Fr. Wladyslaw has been an annual visitor to English Martyrs. He arrives this Wednesday af-ter been very involved with World Youth Day.... Do ask him about it! He will probably need a lift from English Martyrs to St. Anne's on Sundays after 9.45am Mass.

Catholic papers are available in the church porch. It would be good to have one in your home for all to read.

Reachout Network Ministries: translators: minister to homeless and vulnerable men and women in Birmingham. We run a day centre at City Road Methodist Church, Springfield, B16 ONL Tuesdays and Thursdays - 10am - 3pm We are finding an influx of men from Eastern Europe, particularly Poland and Romania. Communication is at best difficult. We are looking for volunteer translators into the-se and other Eastern European Language. The role is to help us register their de-tails and then communicate with them as the need arises. Contact greenfieldtony@yahoo.co.uk Tel: 0791 993 2824 for more info.

Prayer for Peace.....

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O, Divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
it is in dying that we are born again to eternal life.
Amen.
