A message from Fr. Pat—Thank you most sincerely for your many words of appreciation for my ministry in the Archdiocese over the last 43 years. I was overwhelmed during the Farewell Mass and the Social by your generosity expressed in different ways—personally or in the many cards I received over the past few weeks. I am most grateful for your gifts and your contributions to the collection or your personal gifts. I very much appreciate you taking time to attend the Mass or the Social, or if you came to say 'Goodbye.'

I take many fond memories and joys with me as I begin to settle down in retirement. I hope to be from time to time to be of some help and support to priests and people in my home parish and in some of the surrounding churches. Thank you for your prayers. I will frequently remember you in my masses and prayers.

My new address will be: 'Elden House' New Road, Ballylin, Ferbane, Birr, Co. Offaly R42 FX59.

Father Pat left a generous donation for both English Martyrs' and St. Anne's to go towards Church funds. For this we are truly grateful.

THANK YOU FR PAT AND THANK YOU FOR YOUR MINISTRY WITHIN OUR CHURCHES.
