Day for Life—Sunday 18th. (2nd collection for..)

The Church teaches that life is to be nurtured from conception to natural death.

In England and Wales, Day for Life is celebrated on the third Sunday of June each year.

For the first time, it will be celebrated in Scotland and Ireland on the same day.

The theme is 'Listen to Her' and focuses on post-abortion trauma and the impact of abortion primarily on women, but also men and others.

The 2023 Day For Life message is unique in that the bishops' have given it over to a Catholic woman who has had an abortion to share her experiences. Often the voices of women who have had an abortion are silent in Church and in society. The hope is that this will help break this silence and offer further opportunities for healing and reconciliation.

Jane's Story. I went to Catholic schools, I knew about God and morality on some level, but for me, the culture spoke louder when it came to making decisions around sexuality. When I was 15, I discovered I was pregnant and the fear clouded everything. I had one aim, and that was to solve the problem I had found myself in. A quick search for confidential help landed me at a clinic connected to an abortion provider. They seemed to genuinely believe that abortion was the solution to my problem and I don't remember discussing any other options. I was relieved when they determined that I was capable enough to make this decision alone, without the involvement of an adult, which is still legal to this day. Being a Welcoming Church: Session 4 - Homelessness

In each of these one-hour evening workshops we will share some of our own experience of responding to these four needs, the experience of those in parishes working at a local level and what parishioners are doing, and we will finish with a call to action and offer of support. Each session will ask for God's blessing within a short liturgy.

The final evening workshop, on homelessness, will be Monday 19 June 7.30 to 8.30pm.
