

YEAR of MERCY...Merciful like the Father.” Pope Francis on 11 April issued “Misericordiae Vultus” or “The Face of Mercy” – the official Bull of Indiction of the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy, set to begin 8 December.

In the document, Pope Francis says the Holy or Jubilee Year is “dedicated to living out in our daily lives the mercy” which God “constantly extends to all of us.”

After the Holy Door of St Peter’s is opened on 8 December, the Holy Doors of the other papal basilicas will be opened in subsequent days. As a sign of communion of the whole Church, the pope has requested that every diocese in the world open a similar “Door of Mercy” for the local celebrations of the Jubilee.

The Pope writes. “Mercy is the very foundation of the Church’s life,” ..... “The Church’s very credibility is seen in how she shows merciful and compassionate love.” He recalls that the motto of the Holy Year is “Merciful like the Father.”

“Wherever the Church is present, the mercy of the Father must be evident,” he writes. “Wherever there are Christians, everyone should find an oasis of mercy.”

The Pope offers practical ways to live well the Holy Year: go on pilgrimage as an “impetus to conversion”; do not judge or condemn but forgive and give, avoiding gossip, envy and jealousy; have a heart open to the fringes of society and bring consolation, mercy and solidarity to people who live in precarious situations; take up the corporal and spiritual acts of mercy with joy; and observe the “24 Hours for the Lord” initiative, which encourages prayer and the sacrament of reconciliation, in every diocese during Lent.

ive, which encourages
rament of reconciliation,
ing Lent.
