With the Farewell

With the "Farewell Mass" on Monday 17th April..... I draw a close to my priestly ministry in the Archdiocese of Birmingham, which began in 1973 as a Deacon in Littlemore, Oxford, and from 1974 as a priest in various parishes and roles. I have been blessed with the people who have accompanied me on the journey and I appreciate the opportunities of serving in these parts of God's Kingdom. I am most grateful for all the help and support I received from the Archbishops, Bishops, priests, religious and laity. Your kindness, spirituality, example and friendships have helped me to deliver whatever I have given to the communities where I served, and will always remain with me.

Although I will be living in Ireland I remain a Priest of the Archdiocese. I thank His Grace, Archbishop Bernard Longley for his understanding and kindness in allowing me to step down from Parish duties, and for his encouragement for the future.

My address will be: 'Elden House' New Road, Ballylin, Ferbane, Co. Offaly R42 FX59. From there, in due time, I will offer to supply for weekend masses in my native and local parishes.

Thank you for your generous gifts, good wishes and promises of prayers.
God bless.

Fr. Pat

Hidden Treasure: Taizé in Birmingham. Friday 28th April - Monday 1st May. A weekend for Young adults aged 16-35, organised by the Taizé Community and Birmingham Churches Together. The weekend will explore the theme of inner life and solidarity. It is open to both committed Christians and those who are searching. Christians from across Europe will be coming and the young adults of Birmingham Archdiocese are strongly encouraged to take part. Cost: £35 (£25 without a travel pass) for the full weekend. More information and registration at: taize.fr/birmingham. The cost for the weekend is £25 for those from Birmingham who will not need a local travel pass, or £35 for those outside Birmingham who will need a travel pass (included in the price). If this is prohibitive for any of your young adults then please consider if you are able to subsidise them from your parish, or if not please get in touch with the organisers at taizebirmingham@gmail.com.
